Tualatin Man Indicted on Sex Abuse Charges

On Thursday, October 3, 2024, Bryan Norman Anderson was indicted on two counts of sex abuse in the first degree by a Washington County Grand Jury.

In September 2024, Tualatin Police were informed of a sexual abuse incident involving an adult male and a minor. Tualatin detectives investigated and developed probable cause to make an arrest. Mr. Anderson was taken into custody on September 26th and charged for touching children in a public pool in Tualatin. He was subsequently booked into the Washington County Jail.

Investigators believe that Mr. Anderson may have other victims. Anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Brent Powell at 503.691.4844.
